EVIDENTLY THE WORK OF THE PANTHER.

The Venezuelan War Minister Says the Report that the Fort Fired First Is Stupid, as the Guns Were Inferior and Unable to Cope with Those of the Cruiser.

Caracas, Jan. 26 .- A press correspondent has been making inquiries with a view to ascertaining whether the German gunboat Panther or Fort San Carlos fired the first shot,

The foreign minister said: Panther on January 17 attacked the fort first without provocation. The gunboat approached the fort and fired on it. We can guarantee that the attack was premeditated and planned in Berlin. The proof of this assertion is a letter we received on the morning of January 16 from Curacoa, and which President Castro retains in his possession, notifying us that San Carlos would be attacked between January 16 and January 18, that is to say, before the arrival of United States other proof that this attack was premeditated is the circumstances that Gen. Bello, who is in command of the fortress, received no notification as to the object of the Panther in approaching the fortress similar to the written ultimatum that the Germans consul to the Venezuelan representative at Puerto Cabello, when Fort Libertador was shelled."

The correspondent also saw Dr. afterwards said:

"The Panther attacked first. We came and attacked the fortress. Why should we attack? Have we tried, since December 9, to trouble the Germans, English or Italians, notwithstanding their aggressive policy? Our ally receiving. role was finished a fortnight ago. Mr. Bowen, the United States minister, represents our interests, and we were patiently and silently awaiting the result of his mission, when this sad treaty and are completely satisfacevent occurred. Compare the conduct of England and Italy with Germany's system of enforcing the blockade. You will see that the latter alone has interest in creating trouble."

The Venezuelan war minister said: "The report that we fired first on the Panther is stupid. Venezuela, being aware that the guns of the fortress were inferior and of shorter range sion. The matters of police and jurithan the German guns, had learned by dical control is settled by a scheme the experience of the shelling of Puerto Cabello that if anyone suffered it is assured that no citizen of the Unitwould be the fortress.'

He Urges Colorado People to Accept Mr. Teller's Election.

Denver, Col., Jan. 26.-The climax in the senatorial fight in Colorado came Sunday night when ex-Senator E O. Wolcott, the candidate for the socalled "starlwart" wing of the republican party, announced his practical withdrawal from any further contest, and urged the people of Colorado to accept the situation as it stands by the election, Saturday, of Senator Henry M. Teller to succeed himself at the joint session of democratic senators and representatives. The announcement was made in a signed statement, in which Mr. Wolcott charges certain republican leaders associated with the anti-Wolcott forces in the Republican ranks with treachery, deliberate and continuous, although he disposes of others of the anti-Wolcott crowd by characterizing them as "dupes" of the main con-

London, Jan. 26.—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain started on Saturday on an interesting wagon trek from Potchestroom to Mafeking, accompanied by Mrs. Chamberldin, Dr. Arthur Lawley, Maj.-Gen. Baden-Powell and others. There was a picturesque scene outside Ventorsdorp, 31 miles west of Potchestroom. A commando of Boers met the party and escorted it into the town. A bouquet of flowers was presented to Mrs. Chamberlain. The colonial secretary was conducted to the house of the handrost, and the commando of Boers drew up in a half circle outside. Soon after Gen. Delarey arrived and was cordially received by Mr. Chamberlain, who introduced him to Mrs. Chamberlain.

After the presentation of an address of welcome Mr. Chamberlain made a speech to the commando, in which he congratulated the Boers on being comrades of so great and gallant a man as Gen. Delarey.

House of Representatives Meets to Pay Tribute to the Life and Services of Decensed Members.

Washington, Jan. 26 .- The house of representatives, Sunday, inaugurated the experiment of holding memorial services for deceased members upon the Sabbath. It will be followed hereafter during this session, and probably will become the general practice in the house in the future. Heretofore, except on very rare occasions, the house has broken in on its executive work Friday and Saturday to listen to eulogies on deceased members, but the time has seldom been propitious, and latterly the practice has been meeting with growing disfavor. On account of the pressure of public business at this session it was decided to hold these memorial sessions on Sunday this time.

At the session tribute was paid to the life and public services of the late Representatives Russell, of Connecticut, and Shepard and De Graffenreid, of Texas, each of whom died during the congressional recess. The attendance in the galleries was quite large, and there was a numerous assemblage of friends of the deceased members on the floor.

It Threatens to Raise Serious Differences Between Great Britain and the United States.

CALL MADE ON LORD LANSDOWNE.

That a Special Meeting of the British Cabinet Has Heen Summoned to Consider What Action Would Best Be Taken.

London, Jan. 25 .- The reciprocity treaty between Cuba and the United States threatens to raise one of the most serious differences of opinion between Great Britain and the United States that has occurred for years, So much importance is attached to the matter that a meeting of the cabinet is being specially summoned to see what action can be taken. There is, of course, no alarmist feeling as to any possible straining of diplomatic relations, but Great Britain's entire commercial policy is believed to be vitally concerned. The matter came to a head through the deputation from the chamber of commerce of the United Kingdom which waited on Foreign Secretary Lansdowne Friday. It included several members of parliament and represented the most powerful business interests from all the British industrial cen-

Lord Lansdowne's Response

Replying to the delegates' argument that all the advantages which the government had gained by securing the abolition of the sugar bounties would be sacrificed if the Cuban reciprocity treaty became operative, Lord Lansdowne said he thoroughly realized the gravity of the situation and proceeded to read dispatches showing that Ambassador Herbert had forcefully represented the British objections to the treaty, pointing out that it was, to all intents and purposes, a discrimination against all the British possessions in the West Indies, Secretary Hay's reply maintained that the United States was doing no more than it had the right to do, and intimated that it had no intention of modifying the Cuban treaty.

Lord Lansdowne added that all the information available pointed to the fact that the treaty would pass, but he announced that the cabinet would consider if anything further could be done.

An Alleged Secret Clause.

The delegates said they understand that the treaty contains a secret clause stipulating that no further measures of reciprocity shall be undertaken by the United States towards the British West Indies. If such was the case it was suggested to Lord Lansdowne that Great Britain would be only within her rights in retaliating with an increased duty on grain The foreign secretary gave no intimation on this point, which apparently was only suggested in the hope that some of the members of the cabinet, who are reported to be strongly in favor of a more protectionist policy, might use it as a handle to forward their views,
